

In The Spotlight

Andy Scott

Andy Scott is the youngest son of Curt and Tammy Scott and has been attending FPCC for about 15 years. He has two sisters that attend FPCC. He goes to Cody High school, and is a freshman.

1. Who do you look up to?

I don't really have a role model.

2. What do you want to do when you grow up?

I want to become a policeman and train at a police academy.

3. What is your favorite thing about school?

Marketing class.

4. What is one thing that makes you happy?

Dogs and food.

5. What kind of music do you listen to and why?

Country, because of the tone.

6. If you could live anywhere in the world, where would it be? And why?

Australia, it's one of my favorite countries.

7. What is your motto?

Be polite and be professional.

8. What is one thing that motivates you? Food.

9. How can your church family better support you?

I can't think of any way they can.

10. How can you better support your church family?

By signing up to usher more.