LIVE SIMULCAST | April 26-27, 2019

The Empowered to Connect Conference features practical, user-friendly teaching to help equip families and professionals to better serve children who have been impacted by foster care, adoption, and other life situations that cause trauma brain (similar to PTSD). It features Trust-Based Relational Intervention (TBRI) to help bring attachment and connection in families. It is important information for adoptive, foster, and biological parents. It is also important to social workers, CASA volunteers, counselors, teachers, and other professionals working with these children. For more about TBRI go to this link <https://child.tcu.edu/#sthash.jRuwua5u.dpbs>. For more information about the conference speakers that you will hear, go to this link <https://showhope.org/our-work/pre-post-adoption-support/empowered-to-connect/> – but do not register there. That site is for the original April 5 and 6 conference at Texas Christian University. First Presbyterian Church Cody is hosting a rebroadcast of the Conference on April 26 and 27. Use the links below to register for the conference in Cody, to receive one U.W. credit (for educators), and/or to receive CE credits (for social workers).
