IMMIGRATIONS AND CUSTOMS ENFORCEMENT (ICE)

After worship Sunday, December 30, several people asked if there were specific things that they could do to help with people who have been released by Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE) and who are awaiting hearings. I spoke with a Presbyterian Pastor in El Paso and found numerous ways that assistance can be offered. Interestingly, they spoke positively of ICE and noted that ICE is simply being overwhelmed and that many people working for ICE are as concerned for the well-being of these people as well. Obviously money would be a help for these many ministries that are offering food, shelter, and transportation. He also noted that they have a great need for volunteers. If some of you would be available, they need people to help with food preparation, driving, working at overnight shelters etc. The churches could provide volunteers traveling down to help with very rudimentary food and housing. They can use any responsible adult and of course Spanish speakers would be even more helpful. If anyone would like to know more about this, I have the phone number of a pastor who is highly involved with this ministry and who can also refer you to other ministries that are engaged in this work in the greater El Paso area. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Welcome Visitors!

We are glad that you are here this morning. Please sign and pass the attendance pad at the end of the pew. We would especially appreciate having your name, address, and phone number, because we would like to have a chance to thank you for being with us. We invite you to join us for coffee after the service.

Worshipping with children: While children are always welcome in worship, we are happy to offer a nursery, staffed by trained and loving caregivers. The nursery is located in the east wing of the church, about halfway down the hall. Please speak with an usher if you would like assistance finding the nursery.

Listening Devices: If you need an assisted listening device, please ask one of the ushers and they will be happy to help you.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRAYER

CALL TO WORSHIP

Arise, shine; for your light has come.

The glory of God has risen among us.

We are awake; we are alive!

Praise God for deliverance and blessings.

Lift up your eyes to see all around you.

Let your hearts rejoice, and be radiant with hope.

May justice water the earth like a shower;

let righteousness and peace abound.

Receive again the promises of the gospel

Participate in the mystery of Jesus Christ.

God’s ways are being revealed to us today.

Our church proclaims the unsearchable riches of Christ.

“We Three Kings” (Hymnal #66)

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of light, we admit our retreat into the shadows of pretension and exclusion. How often we choose to associate with people who are like us and then look down on others who differ from us. It is easier to discover their sins than to admit our own. We judge the poor and join their oppressors, while you call us to identify with those in need, that all may prosper together. We imagine that we alone are faithful stewards of your grace, while you welcome, as fellow saints with us, many whom we ignore. Save us from our earthbound judgments, that we may look up and be guided by the star that draws all people to yourself. Awed by your forgiving presence, we fall down to worship you. Amen

GLORIA PATRI (Hymnal #579)

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; world without end.
Amen*
