Good News

We want to welcome Janie Gore and her son Ernesto into our church family! Janie met with the elders on Sunday afternoon and placed membership with us at Jefferson Avenue. Janie teaches 5th grade at Algood Middle School. We are glad that they have been coming to worship with us! Please look for them this Sunday and introduce yourself. Their address is 75 Virginia St, Algood 38506; phone 537-2146.

We also want to welcome Hugh and Jean Birdwell as new members. The Birdwells have been visiting with us for several months now. They are well known to several of you and have been faithful Christians for many years. Please make them feel welcome at Jefferson Avenue! Their address is 2985 Gainesboro Grade, Cookeville, 38501; phone 528-8102.

In Loving Memory

Our dear sister in Christ, Mrs. Judi Williams, passed away on Thursday afternoon after a short battle with cancer. Judi was a fine Christian example of perseverance. She was left all alone in this world when her son and her husband both died decades ago. But she bravely pressed forward and lived a faithful Christian life.

Judi was a servant in every sense of the word. She spent countless hours volunteering at church and helping those in need. She always thought about what she could do for others. Judi truly laid up her treasures in heaven!

In Acts 10.38, Peter said that Jesus “went around doing good.” So did Mrs. Judi. We will miss her, but we look forward to seeing her again in heaven!
