GOOD NEWS

We have a new brother in Christ! Parks Fowler, oldest son of Jason and Amy Fowler, was baptized into Christ for the forgiveness of his sins on Saturday, July 15. Parks was baptized by his grandfather Doug Fowler. Parks will be a 6th grader at Algood this fall. Please send him a note this week and congratulate him on this most important decision!

LIFE, AT BEST, IS TRANSITORY

I read the following quote a couple of months ago and I want to share it with you: "Must, must, must - all of us get in our minds that this world is not our home, and that life, at best, is transitory." When we are growing up, we think we will live forever. We have plans and dreams and hopes. It seems like school will last forever. We graduate middle school and then high school. We are so excited! The world is before us. Then we either get a job or go to college. Then it seems like college will last forever. We feel strong when we work. We have boundless energy.

Then fast forward. We turn 40 and realize we have been working for 20 years. We still feel good. We still have a lot of energy. But we know that we will not live forever. Friends have died suddenly, leaving behind spouses and kids and unmet dreams. The next 20 years go by a lot faster.

Suddenly, we are in our 60s and making plans for retirement. Where did the time go? Our kids have their own kids now. We have our aches and pains. We have a lot less energy. More friends have passed away. We realize our time on earth is short.

In the blink of an eye, we are 80. We have our problems, but God is good. We miss our family and friends. We think a lot about heaven.

I am reminded of these words Albert Brumley wrote in 1937:

*This world is not my home, I'm just passing through.
My treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue.
The angels beckon me from heaven's open door
And I can't feel at home in this world anymore.*

Life is short. What are you doing today to prepare for eternity?

THE UNKNOWN

I do not know what still awaits,
Or what the morrow brings;
But with the glad salute of faith,
I hail its open wings!

For this I know - that in my Lord
Shall all my needs be met;
And I can trust the heart of Him
Who has not failed me yet.
