Money, Materialism & The American Dream

Steve Evans | FH

In a culture that constantly encourages us to pursue more, God calls us to a different perspective on wealth and success. This class will examine what the Bible teaches about money, contentment, stewardship, and finding our ultimate treasure in Christ rather than the things of this world.

Is Jesus the Only Way?

Sam Wienke | C7

Many people today believe there are multiple paths to God, but what does Scripture say? This class will explore the biblical evidence for Jesus' claim to be the only way to salvation and help believers respond with both conviction and compassion.

Prince or Pauper: Our Identity in Christ

Beth Fomley | E1

The world often defines us by our achievements, failures, or circumstances, but God gives His children a new identity. This class will explore what it means to be adopted into God's family and how understanding our identity in Christ transforms the way we live.

Truth in a "My Truth" World

Nathan Lyon | R3

In a culture where truth is often viewed as personal and subjective, God's Word stands as the unchanging standard. This class will examine how to recognize, defend, and live according to biblical truth while engaging a world that increasingly rejects absolute truth.

Faith in the Family

Steve & Rebekah Townsend | R5

Strong families are built on a strong foundation of faith. This class will provide biblical encouragement and practical wisdom for cultivating a Christ-centered home where faith is lived out, passed on, and strengthened across generations.

COMING NEXT WEEK

Spiritual Gifts Today

Steve Evans | FH

God has uniquely equipped every believer to serve and strengthen the body of Christ. This class will explore what the Bible teaches about spiritual gifts, their purpose in the church today, and how to faithfully use the gifts God has given for His glory and the good of others.

Same Faith, Different Generation

Hunter Taylor | C7

The church was never designed to be divided by age. Throughout Scripture, older believers are called to pass their faith to the next generation, while younger believers remind the church of fresh zeal, honest questions, and childlike faith. This breakout creates intentional conversations between generations. Younger believers will have the opportunity to learn from decades of following Christ, while older believers will hear what it looks like to pursue Jesus in today's world.

The Three C's of Church History

Sam Troyer | R3

Church history is the story of God's faithfulness through centuries of triumphs, trials, and transformation. This class will explore three key themes that have shaped the church throughout history, helping believers better understand their spiritual heritage and God's ongoing work in His people.
