Spiritual Gifts Today

Steve Evans | FH

God has uniquely equipped every believer to serve and strengthen the body of Christ. This class will explore what the Bible teaches about spiritual gifts, their purpose in the church today, and how to faithfully use the gifts God has given for His glory and the good of others.

Same Faith, Different Generation

Hunter Taylor | C7

The church was never designed to be divided by age. Throughout Scripture, older believers are called to pass their faith to the next generation, while younger believers remind the church of fresh zeal, honest questions, and childlike faith. This breakout creates intentional conversations between generations. Younger believers will have the opportunity to learn from decades of following Christ, while older believers will hear what it looks like to pursue Jesus in today's world.

The Three C's of Church History

Sam Troyer | R3

Church history is the story of God's faithfulness through centuries of triumphs, trials, and transformation. This class will explore three key themes that have shaped the church throughout history, helping believers better understand their spiritual heritage and God's ongoing work in His people.

COMING NEXT WEEK

Suffering & the Goodness of God Stephanie French | FH

When life is filled with pain, loss, and unanswered questions, it can be difficult to understand how God is still good. This class will explore what Scripture teaches about suffering, God's sovereign purposes in our trials, and the hope believers have in Christ even in the midst of hardship.

God's Road Dave Luther | C7

God has a purpose and direction for every believer's life, even when the path is unclear. This class will examine biblical principles for walking faithfully with God, trusting His guidance, and following His will through every season of life.

Hearing God Steve Evans | R3

Many Christians wonder how God speaks and how they can discern His voice. This class will explore the biblical ways God communicates through His Word, the Holy Spirit, prayer, and wise counsel, helping believers grow in confidence as they seek to follow Him.

BCC Groups Hunter Taylor | R5

God designed believers to grow in community, not isolation. This class will highlight the biblical importance of fellowship, discipleship, and accountability while introducing opportunities to connect through Brown Corners Church Groups and build meaningful relationships centered on Christ.
