JUNE 7

Faith & Politics Hunter Taylor | FH

Faith & Politics is not about telling people what party to join or what positions they must hold, but about asking a deeper question: is our political thinking being shaped more by the Kingdom of God or by the culture around us? Together, we'll explore how Christians can engage politics with conviction, humility, wisdom, and a primary allegiance to Christ above every tribe, platform, or ideology.

The Gospels Steve Evans | C7

Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John each tell the story of Jesus from a unique perspective. In this class, we'll explore why God gave us four Gospel accounts, how they differ, and how together they give us a fuller picture of who Jesus is. Whether you are new to the Bible or have studied it for years, this class will help you read the Gospels with greater understanding and confidence.

Fasting Stephanie French | E1

Fasting is a biblical practice that helps believers draw near to God through prayer, dependence, and spiritual focus. In this class, we will explore what the Bible teaches about fasting, why God's people fasted, and how fasting can deepen our walk with Christ today.

Your Heart Matters Herb Bowers | E2

What has happened to your heart in what we call life? You cannot love God or others without your heart. What does Scripture say about our hearts? See you on Sunday the 7th of June.

Communication in Marriage Dave Luther | R3

Strong marriages are built on honest, loving, and Christ-centered communication. In this class, we will explore biblical principles for communication in marriage. Whether newly married or married for decades, this class offers practical tools to help strengthen your relationship and reflect Christ in your communication.

Worship that Engages the Whole Person Dan Lake | R5

This breakout will explore the biblical truth that worship is far more than singing songs or participating in religious activities—it is the wholehearted response of a believer to God with heart, soul, mind, and strength. Drawing from passages such as Deuteronomy 6:5 and Matthew 22:37, we will examine how true worship engages every aspect of our lives and flows from a genuine love for God expressed through both devotion and obedience.

COMING NEXT WEEK

Still Fruitful (Aging Faithfully)

Tom & Pat Halberda | FH

Growing older is not a season of retirement from God's work, but a season of continued purpose and fruitfulness. Together, we'll explore what Scripture teaches about aging with wisdom, faith, and a legacy that points others to Christ.

Do you Enjoy God?

Beth Fomley | C7

God calls us not only to obey Him, but to delight in Him. This class will examine what the Bible says about finding our joy, satisfaction, and deepest pleasure in a relationship with God.

Can I Trust the Bible?

Sam Wienke | E1

In a world filled with competing truth claims, how can we know the Bible is trustworthy? We'll explore the biblical and historical evidence for Scripture's reliability and learn why God's Word remains our sure foundation for faith and life..

The Trinity

Hunter Taylor | R3

What has happened to your heart in what we call life? You cannot love God or others without your heart. What does Scripture say about our hearts? See you on Sunday the 7th of June.

Conflict Resolution in Marriage

Dave Luther | R5

Every marriage experiences conflict, but God's Word provides wisdom for navigating disagreements in a way that honors Him. Together, we'll discover biblical principles for communication, forgiveness, reconciliation, and strengthening the marriage relationship.
