Join us For Trick or Treat Time Thursday, October 29th

Hey Church Family,

Thank you for a wonderful pastor appreciation lunch, fall festival, and great day this past Sunday. Brandy, Luke, Lydia, and I feel grateful to have you as our church family.

Next Thursday, October 29th is the Glennville Area Trick or Treat for the community from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. We will be passing out popcorn and drinks at the church. We would love your help passing out the popcorn. Also, you are welcome to set up your own trunk for trunk or treating.

I am looking forward to this Sunday and my sermon. The title is Complete Joy. We are going to be talking about one of the earliest hymns in Christianity from Philippians 2:1-11.

This is going to be another great Sunday at Glennville Methodist. See you soon!

Grace and Peace,
David Wesley Donnan

UPDATE ON THE HEN HOUSE LITIGATION

Dear Congregation:

On behalf of the Trustees, I wanted to provide you with another update on the status of the Hen House property acquisition.

As you all will recall from my last update, on September 9, 2026, Judge Paul Rose ruled in the church's favor and granted our motion for summary judgment, finding that the Hen House's owner, Ms. Sonya Johnson-Rome, did not have a valid case and commanding her to convey the Hen House property to the church. She informed Judge Rose at that time that she intended to appeal his ruling to the Court of Appeals.

Ms. Johnson-Rome had thirty days within which to file a notice of appeal; however, that deadline passed last week with no appeal filed. Accordingly, under Judge Rose's order, she now has until November 9, 2026, to complete the closing. To that end, I have sent her a letter notifying her of multiple potential closing dates over the coming weeks and have asked her to select the most convenient date for her.

While it is possible that she will cooperate and attend the closing, I am not optimistic. If she refuses, then the next step will be for me to threaten to file a motion for contempt. As always, I will keep you all updated as events transpire.

Best regards,

Dylan Edward Mulligan
Attorney at Law
