Issue 31

Hello From General Conference

Hey Church Family,

It's Pastor David coming to you from General Conference in Johannesburg, South Africa!

Brandy and I are having a great time meeting people from all over the world, worshipping the Lord together, and learning even more about our denomination's theology, polity, and processes. It has been an incredible reminder of just how global the Global Methodist Church really is.

At the time I'm writing this, it is Wednesday morning here in Johannesburg. I am currently subbing in as a delegate and sitting on the floor during one of our plenary sessions, where delegates from around the world are considering and voting on business before the conference.

Later today, we expect to begin electing the bishops who will serve our church in different parts of the world. That includes the bishop who will provide episcopal leadership for the South Georgia Conference. Hopefully, by the end of the day, we will have a much clearer picture of who our next bishop will be. Please be praying especially for that important process and for God's wisdom and guidance in every decision we make.

I seem to have adjusted relatively well to the time change, but I am looking forward to getting back on Eastern Time and, more importantly, seeing all of you again very soon! Please continue praying for the important work happening here and for safe travels as Brandy and I make our way home Sunday and Monday.

I hope you all have a wonderful Labor Day weekend. If you are in town, I would love for you to join us for worship this Sunday. Dr. Richard Cabbage will be preaching and continuing our study through 1 Samuel.

It's going to be a great Sunday!

Grace and Peace,
David Wesley Donnan
