

Set the Stage | Center Stage | September 2, 2018

MAIN POINT:

Who is God in your life?

ICEBREAKER: If you were on stage in front of 1000 people, what would your biggest fear be?

EXPLORATION:

1. Read Genesis 1:27. When you think of God creating man in His own image, what are qualities that you think of? Are these qualities hard to come by in your life and the lives of people around you?
2. Reads Genesis 1:28. What does it mean to have dominion over the earth? To what extent do you believe that you need to carry this responsibility (i.e. recycling to not using straws, etc.)? Discuss this topic with the group.
3. Read John 1:14. When you think of the word becoming flesh, what is the first thing that comes to mind? When you dwell on the Word, is it easier for the word to “become flesh” or easier? What are ways that you are able to let God’s grace and truth be seen in your everyday life?

APPLICATION:

1. In your group, discuss who and what God is in your life (There are no wrong answers)?
2. When things are starting to become chaotic in your life, what are some practices that you use to regain control? Discuss ways that you can give that over to God so that he will give you order in the mist of chaos.
3. This is a time that you are able to vulnerable. What is your current status of your relationship with God through Christ? What does it mean to have a relationship with “God through Christ?” Allow yourself to be encouraged by the other testimonies in the group to grow in faith.
4. As you end this, spend time in prayer. Ask the Lord to reveal to you where you are not letting him control your life. Ask Him to bring order instead of trying to do it on your own. Ask God to make it clear where he stands in your life and make an effort to put Him first.
