New City Catechism Question 26
Elder Confession of Faith #15

“The judgments of God are audible sermons. They have a voice. The Lord’s voice crieth to the city, ‘Hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it’ (Mic. 6:9). Divine judgments are loudly audible; they have a crying voice, and it is strange that the voice of such a cry should be forgotten that so dreadful an event of providence [the Great Fire of London] should be but as a nine-days wonder!”
