A few notes for this week...

1. I pray that everyone stayed safe on the roads on our snow day if you had to go out. If your children are like mine, they spent quite a bit of time outside today!
2. Permission slips for the Evergreen play on the 14th are due tomorrow. Thank you for getting these in so we can plan for transportation!
3. February 22, 2019- The next Scholastic book orders are due. Please order online with the following code: RLQJZ.
4. Keep an eye on the Falcon Flash for upcoming events for our families.
5. Valentine's Day Party after our Evergreen Field Trip on February 14, 2019. Check out the sign-up for snacks.
6. I would like to thank the many families who came out this past Wednesday to Evergreen Eagles vs. ALS to show their support for my husband and my family. We are truly humbled by our merciful God who continues to shower us with His love and many blessings. We praise God for all of your support and prayers! Thank you!

In Christ,
Mrs. Naomi Getka
