Supervision Procedures

Unless an extenuating situation exists, WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH:

1. Will have adequate number of screened and trained paid staff or volunteers present at events involving minors. Supervision will increase in proportion to the risk of the activity.
2. Will monitor facilities during activities involving children.
3. Will release minors only to an approved parent or guardian.
4. Will obtain written parental permission, including a signed medical treatment form and emergency contacts, before taking minors on trips and should provide information regarding the trip.
5. Will use the approved Woodlawn Christian Church bus for travel with two or more paid staff or volunteers onboard. When other vehicles are necessary, we will use two paid staff or volunteers when transporting minors in vehicles.
6. Will require that young children be accompanied to the restroom and the paid staff or volunteer wait outside the facility to escort the child back to the activity. Whenever possible, the escort will be the same sex as the minor.
7. Will encourage minors to use a "buddy system" whenever minors go on trips off of WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH property.
8. Will screen all paid staff and volunteers and approve those individuals in advance for any overnight activities.

Behavioral Guidelines for Religious Organization Paid Staff

All volunteers and paid staff will observe the following guidelines:

1. Do not provide alcoholic beverages, tobacco, drugs, contraband, or anything that is prohibited by law to minors.
2. To the extent possible, WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH events that are co-educational will have both male and female chaperones.
3. Whenever possible, at least two unpaid staff or volunteers will be in the room when minors are present. Doors will have windows for incidental viewing, and will be left fully open if one adult needs to leave the room temporarily and during arrival to the class or event before both adults are present. Speaking to a minor or minors one-on-one should be done in public settings where paid staff or volunteers are in sight of other people.

4. Avoid all inappropriate touching with minors. All touching shall be based on the needs of the individual being touched, not on the needs of the volunteer or paid staff. In the event a minor initiates physical contact and/or inappropriate touching, it is appropriate to inform the minor that such touching is inappropriate.
5. Never engage in physical discipline of a minor. Volunteers and paid staff shall not abuse minors in any way, including but not limited to physical abuse, verbal/mental abuse, emotional abuse, and sexual abuse of any kind.
6. If you recognize an inappropriate relationship developing between a minor and another adult, report the relationship to the officials of WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH. If you as a leader recognizes an inappropriate relationship developing between you and a minor, maintain clear professional boundaries and refer the minor to another individual with supervisory authority.
7. If one-on-one pastoral care is necessary, avoid meeting in isolated environments.
8. Anyone who observes abuse of a minor will take appropriate steps to immediately intervene and provide assistance. Report any inappropriate conduct to the proper authorities and officials of WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH for handling.

It is important to be appropriately respectful to the needs and feelings of those who allege sexual abuse and those who have been accused of sexual abuse.

When an accusation is made, the chairman of the elders will have primary oversight over conducting the investigation (see investigation conduct guidelines below). If an accusation is made against the chairman of the elders, an elder designee chosen by the full eldership team will be assigned the responsibility.

When an allegation is made involving sexual abuse, the person reporting the complaint is to be told about the guidelines and the procedures to be followed. The chairman of the elders (or an appointed person) will begin investigating the allegations and may use the assistance of legal counsel or other consultants. The investigation will be conducted as follows:

1. Report the incident to appropriate authorities in accordance with the state mandatory reporting laws.
2. Report the matter to WOODLAWN CHRISTIAN CHURCH's insurance carrier.
