

A Star for the Ages

By Edwin W. Smith

The shepherds did tend
To their flocks in the field
While three of the wisest
Came gifts in hand

They followed a star
That showed the way
To a plain barn,
A straw lined manger

For this was the night
That a child was born
Who would lead,
Suffer and die

For the forgiveness of sins
Of all mankind
And to save the soul
Of humanity