BUD'S NOTES

THE PROMISE

As I write this article, we have had a couple of rehearsals this week for The PROMISE. We have a great cast and crew and I am very excited about what God is going to do this weekend. If everything goes to plan, many of you watched the presentation on Saturday evening. I hope it was a blessing in your life. I want to thank the Celebration Choir, the SALT team, our actors and each person that served in some capacity to make it a great blessing. The PROMISE requires a lot of time and commitment. Our cast and crew have graciously given of themselves to make this presentation a success. It is a unique way to tell the story of Jesus. Our prayer is that some will come to know Him through this presentation and others will renew their spirit and commitment to him. May God get all the glory!! Thank you cast and crew...may God bless you!!

THE PROMISE TONIGHT!!!!

Invite some friends, family co-workers and neighbors to experience The PROMISE. Let us fill this sanctuary tonight!!!
