

Oil Belt Christian Service Camp

2018 Summer Staff

Thank you for your interest in joining our team as Summer Staff at Oil Belt! Below you'll find information on expectations for our staff, your general responsibilities and position descriptions.

Summer Staff Expectations:

1. Summer Staff must be active, immersed Christians.
2. Summer Staff must have read and agreed to comply with Oil Belt Christian Service Camp's statement of beliefs and the child abuse protection policy.
3. Summer Staff must fill out a ministry background check to be approved by the camp management.
4. Summer Staff are expected to abide by the Oil Belt Summer Camp Rules.

General Summer Staff Guidelines

1. Oil Belt's Summer workers will share in the maintenance and service responsibilities for our summer camp program starting on May 21st and continuing until it ends on August 18th.
There are two bonus opportunities on May 18-20 and during Family Camp Aug 31-Sept 3.
2. Responsibilities will be divided into specific personal duties once the summer staff team is in place. These areas include: Dish room, Serving room, Girl's Dorm Custodian, Guy's Dorm Custodian, Canteen, Groundskeepers, Recreation, Lifeguards and Promotions.
3. You are expected to be on time each day.
4. You are expected to dress appropriately. (See Oil Belt's Dress Code)
5. You are expected to attend daily devotions with the camp staff.
6. Phone use is not allowed in the cafeteria during meals/work.
7. You are allowed 2 canteen items/day. Shirts or other Oil Belt merchandise are not included.
8. You are expected to be courteous and Christ-like in your interaction with our guests (campers and faculty). Your focus is to be 'Servants of Christ'.
9. You will need to reside here at the camp in our Summer Staff areas. You are not allowed to stay off campus without permission of the Programming Director. You are expected to keep living area neat and clean.
10. Men are only to be in the women's house upon direct permission from the Programming Director, and then only in the living room/dining room. No men in women's bedroom area and no women in men's house. There is never to be only one man and one woman in the house.

11. Keep your socializing off-campus. Camp housing is for Camp staff only. The Programming Director must approve all exceptions.
12. You will be given regular time-off in a rotating order; which may be transferred among you to fit your summer schedules.
13. Staff usually eats before campers; however if we are running late, we will take care of campers first.

Lifeguard Guidelines

1. Lifeguards must have a current certificate of lifeguarding on file with the camp office.
2. Be at the pool ready for work 45 minutes before swim time is scheduled.
3. No phone usage while working.
4. All music played at the pool must be approved by management.
5. Swimsuits must be modest, one-piece, no bikinis. (See Camp Dress Code)
6. Lifeguards are expected to lead by a Christ-like example while on duty.
7. Lifeguards have authority over all swimmers, even the deans and faculty. You are responsible for safety in the pool area.

Lifeguard Discipline Procedures:

1. 1st Offense: Verbal Warning acknowledging and explaining the offense.
2. 2nd Offense: Verbal Command then having swimmer sit for 5 minutes near a faculty or lifeguard.
3. 3rd Offense: Verbal Command and swimmer sits with faculty the rest of session.

When students, faculty or dean criticize or question your judgement, your response should simply be: "Tyler and Todd have hired me to enforce safety. I choose to make this decision for that reason. We can talk about this with them after today's swimming session."

POOL EMERGENCY ACTION PLAN

1 Long whistle signals need for emergency action.

When a lifeguard determines a situation to be an emergency in the pool or lockerroom area, they are to blow one long whistle communicating to the other lifeguards on duty that they need to begin the emergency action plan.

This emergency plan is:

- Get all swimmers out of the pool, quickly and safely. Have them orderly line up along the fence placing an adult faculty in charge of supervision.
- This faculty member will be responsible for evacuating the swimmers from the pool deck in an orderly manner.
- Send another adult to bring the camp nurse to the emergency area and communicate with emergency personnel by calling 911.
- Then have this adult communicate with camp management.
- Assist with the emergency as it corresponds to the training you have received. The camp nurse is the authority as it pertains to emergencies during a camp session. If a camp nurse is not available, the lifeguard is to take initiative to provide emergency care.

An emergency consists of:

- Excessive bleeding
- Unconsciousness
- Unresponsive swimmer or person in the pool area
- Heart attack
- Vomit in the pool or immediate pool area
- Anything that causes immediate danger to the rest of the swimmers.
