FEBRUARY 2026

Thank You

And now I come to my last church newsletter article! How many of these have I written over the past 40 years?! How in the world did I come with something for every month (truth be told only at Christ Lutheran have I written every month, in Whitefish and Eugene that was the 'senior pastor' job!)?

By today I'm not struggling with what to say because all I want to say is thank you! Thank you for the privilege of being your pastor for these past 18 plus years. Thank you for all the baptisms and weddings, the confirmations and the funerals (yes, even a funeral is worthy of a thank you because of the ways I have been invited into this most difficult but also holy place in your lives). Thank you for how warmly you have received Thelma and me for all these years. Thank you for the fact that so many of you aren't parishioners anymore but friends. Thank you for the ways that you have embraced out-of-the-ordinary things like Compassion Weekend, Christmas in Narnia, the Journey to Bethlehem, the Resurrection Trail. Thank you for your faithful financial support of our ministry and mission together. Thank you for allowing me to do those science and faith trips to Europe with my son-in-law, and for supporting the Israel and Footsteps of Paul trips. Thank you for entrusting your children into my care because I know there is nothing more precious to parents than their children. Thank you that you have not only accepted me as your pastor but loved me, not just as pastor Ralf but also simply as Ralf.

Annie Dillard, in a wonderful book called 'Pilgrim at Tinker Creek', once wrote:
"I think that the dying pray at the last not please but thank you, as a guest thanks his host at the door. Falling from airplanes the people are crying thank you, thank you, all down the air . . ."

Thankfully I'm not dying (or falling out of a plane!) but I understand what she means – in the end there is gratitude not regret, thankfulness not sorrow.

Almost without exception the Apostle Paul begins all his letters on a note of gratitude. He does this because he is so convinced that everything in the Christian experience finally is an expression of God's grace given to us in Jesus Christ. Karl Barth, one of the great Paul expositors, writes: "Grace and gratitude belong together like heaven and earth. Gratitude evokes grace like the voice and echo. Gratitude follows grace as thunder follows lightning."

I hope you know my gratitude today follows 18 years of receiving grace at Christ Lutheran.

Because so much of what I believe about pastoral ministry grew from my youth ministry background (ministry is about relationships!) I am so grateful for the wonderful relationships I have had and will continue to have because of Christ Lutheran.

What a gift you have been in our lives and as we prepare for the next steps, Thelma and I want you to know very simply: We love you and are so thankful for you!

One final time, with love from your pastor,
Ralf

P.S. #1 from Thelma

Thank you so much for the beautiful tea on Sunday afternoon. I loved the tables and dishes and hats and especially all of you beautiful women! You so filled my heart and soul, and I am so grateful!

With love and thanks from Thelma

P.S.#2 from Ralf And a final thank you to the wonderful staff I have been blessed to work with – Lyndi, Aubrie, Sandra, Auren, Betsy, Tyler, Ashley, Rylie, Michele, Tracy, Evin, Rose (not to mention all the other staff through the years). It's so much less like work when done together with people like you!

Children & Families

A note from Lyndi...

I do not have a long article this month, as I am just 2 days out from all the Retirement Festivities, but I do want to highlight a couple of important things.

1. We will publish a Special Addition Angelos later in the month with some photos and recaps of Ralf's retirement! We expect to get the photos from the photographer soon. Watch for that special addition, later this month.
2. This upcoming Sunday we are celebrating the Seahawks making it to the Super Bowl and hopefully clinching the win, AND we are having our own SOUPer Bowl Sunday and hoping to clinch a TOUCHDOWN for the Tillicum Food Bank. Wear your Seahawks gear and bring your canned soups/chili/etc.!!!
3. On Tuesday, February 17th we will be having our Annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Dinner! We have this event each year to have a final celebration and clear out all the sweets from our kitchen before we go in to the season of Lent. We again will have a pancake dinner, play some fun games, enjoy some Mardi Gras music and this year we will also be welcoming Pastor Jaech. This event is being sponsored this year by our Latchkey (Before and After School Program) as a fundraiser for their program. We have so many families in our local neighborhood who attend this program and we want to support them and their children. Latchkey will use all donations to help families with scholarships, purchase some much needed new supplies and to add enrichment to their program. Thank you for help us support this great ministry of our church!

With love and thanks for all the ways we shine a light in our community,
Lyndi

Monday Morning Bible Study

Bible Study will meet at 9 AM in the Alpha Room. We are finishing our study of the book of Acts in The Gospel on the Ground by Kristi McLelland. This has provided us with lively discussion and several Spiritual challenges.

Prayer Group

The Prayer Group meets Monday mornings after Bible study (around 11:15 AM). If you have prayer requests, you may click the prayer request "button" in the CLC weekly email or call the Church secretary. You may also drop a written prayer request in the offering plate. We celebrate the power of prayer.

Book Group

The CLC book club meets on the third Thursday of the month (02/19/2026), in the Alpha Room at 10 AM. February's selection is The Queens of Crime by Marie Benedict. Please note that I had listed this as our April selection! My apologies.

The self-titled Queens of Crime: Dorothy Sayers, Agatha Christie, Emma Orczy, Ngaio Marsh and Margery Allingham, are tired of being slighted by the all-male Detection Club of mystery writers. Dorothy Sayers gathers her fellow female counterparts to solve an actual cold case to prove their detection skills.

This band of writers in the 1930 decide to solve the mysterious disappearance and death of May Daniels, a young English nurse who vanished in France. The writers sharpen their detection skills, they discover the collaborative power of their intellect will hopefully unmask a killer who thought he has "gotten away with murder". This is historical fiction so the reader also get a look at the personal scandals of these real life crime writers.

2/19/26	The Queens of Crime by Marie Benedict
3/19/26	Only the Beautiful by Susan Meissner
4/16/26	The Book of Hope by Jane Goodall, Douglas Adams
5/21/26	Making the Best of What's Left by Judith Viorst
6/18/26	The Backyard Bird Chronicles by Amy Tan
7/16/26	Vera Wong's Guide to Snooping (on a Dead Man) by Jesse Q. Sutanto
8/20/26	The Making of Another Major Motion Picture Masterpiece by Tom Hanks
9/17/26	The Jackal's Mistress by Chris Bohjalian
10/15/26	The Correspondent: A Novel by Virginia Evans

Please join us. If you use the library, always check the availability of the selection as well as the Lucky Day shelf. Some of the titles later in the year have long wait lists. If you would like more information for Monday Morning Bible Study, Prayer Group or Book Discussion contact Mikel Robinson: text or call (253)307-9373 or email at mar8412@hotmail.com.
