

Loving God with Our Minds

Adult Education for 2018-2019

We're excited about a new year of Thursday afternoon and Sunday morning adult education classes. Some of what's coming your way includes . . .

- A class for families on turning the Christian faith into a 'sticky' faith for your kids
- A Lutheran/Christian perspective on the arts
- My neighbor's faith – a look at world religions
- Discovering your spiritual gifts
- The Joseph story (Genesis 37-50)
- C. S. Lewis and Mere Christianity

In the Jesus's great command ("Love God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, all your strength" Mark 12:30) he includes loving God with our minds. One of our goals for classes is to help us do just that, not simply to stuff more information in our minds but to love God with our minds. Join us as we do this!

September – October Classes

The Sticky Faith Guide for Your Family

When: Sunday mornings, 9:45-10:40, starting on September 16

Where: The space formerly known as the library (we're working on a new name!)

Teachers: Mark Reger and Greg Reger

Who Should Come: Families with kids whose hope is that the Christian faith will 'stick' to their kids through their entire lives!

You'll Get Through This

When: Sunday mornings, 9:45-10:40, starting on September 16

Thursday afternoons, 1:30-2:30, starting on
September 13

Where: Fireside Room on Sunday's, the former library space on Thursday's

Teachers: Pastor Ralf on Thursday's (maybe on Sunday's too!)

What: A DVD series by Max Lucado that looks at the biblical story of Joseph as a way of offering
"hope and help for turbulent times."
