School Authority and Discipline

We hereby invest authority in the school to discipline our child as necessary. We understand that we should discipline our child in the home according to scriptural principles. We understand that the school does not condone the consumption of alcoholic beverages, abuse of drugs, or use of tobacco products. We will support the school discipline policies by upholding these standards in our home.

If our child should become involved in any trouble at school, or we disagree with any policy set by the school, we in no case will complain to any parent; but in the love of Christ and with prayer, we will register only necessary complaints with the teacher or administrator.
