Rita Gonzalez, husband Marlo and their two sons moved to Hong Kong in 2002. She obtained a degree in Bachelor of Science in Commerce with major in Management at St. Paul University in Quezon City, Philippines, and later worked in Philippine Airlines till she retired early in 1998. She has since devoted her life to her family and to serving in Christian ministries. She and her husband serve in church ministries as leaders and Bible Study teachers in care groups, Prayer Ministry, Women's & Men's Ministries respectively, as well as group leaders in Bible Study Fellowship and facilitators in small group Bible Study curriculum. She has been to missions in Asia and Europe where she was invited as conference and retreat speaker. She has preached in small churches and delivered messages to pastors and ministry leaders in those places. She considers being a servant of GOD and ambassadress for the gospel of CHRIST the most blessed privilege she has ever been bestowed with by GOD in her lifetime.
