

NICK & KEYNA

Nick and Keyna are on staff with Athletes in Action. They serve on a team that reaches out at Northwestern University and other Chicagoland schools. Their ministry is focused on evangelism and discipleship. This involves sharing the gospel with lost students on campus, helping believers grow in their walks with God through mentoring and small-group Bible studies, and helping students reach other students on campus. Nick also serves on the AIA National team helping ministry leaders all over the US to build ministries centered around multiplication through evangelism and discipleship.

Nick grew up in Cincinnati and Keyna grew up in Arcanum. They met at Ohio State University and have worked with Cru (the parent ministry of AIA) since 2001. They have served in Azerbaijan, at Ohio State, and currently serve with AIA in Chicagoland and nationally. Nick and Keyna have a daughter named Sophia and two sons named Micah and Luke.
