

SERVE AT NCC

As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace.

1 Peter 4:10

Adam Jackley
Senior Pastor

Church,

Jesus said, "The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve" (Matthew 20:28). Therefore, to live and love like Jesus is to serve.

In this booklet you will find many opportunities to live out your identity as a servant. New Community Church has always been blessed by people who find a place to contribute their unique gifts and to fulfill the needs we have as a church. Please prayerfully consider how you can jump in and make a difference. I thank you in advance for your help in meeting the growing ministry needs of our church.

Grace and Peace,

Adam Jackley

Care Response

Helping Hands

Commitment: varies by individual

Day/Time: varies by individual

Leader: Andrea Werth

Contact: awerth@nccinwexford.org

Our church community has always been full of "helping hands" but we are bringing this ministry back in an official way! As a new extension of the Care Team, the Helping Hands group will use their skills to help those in need in with yard work, home maintenance, car repair, etc. We can't wait to see how God uses this ministry to bring his love and care to those who need it most. * Kids Serving Opportunity: Middle School with an adult and up

If you or someone you know would like care support, please reach out to Andrea at care@nccinwexford.org

College Care Ministry

Commitment: September - May

Day/Time: varies by individual

Leader: Linda Constantino

Contact: (724) 713-1304

NCC's College Care Ministry serves college students while they are away from home. We do this by pairing each student with a partner or family at NCC early in the fall. Volunteers are asked to connect with their student through text or emails, commit to pray regularly for them, and send care packages to them throughout the school year. NCC provides the care packages, as well as devotionals and small gift cards to send to students. Ministry members also help with Graduation Sunday in May or June by hosting a lunch at the church for high school and college graduates.
