SCRIPTURE READING – Robin White

Luke 19:28-40 “Jesus Enters Jerusalem”

“When Jesus had finished saying all this, he went on toward Jerusalem. As he was getting near Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples on ahead. He told them, ‘Go into the next village, where you will find a young donkey that has never been ridden. Untie the donkey and bring it here. If anyone asks why you are doing that, just say, ‘The Lord needs it.’

They went off and found everything just as Jesus had said. While they were untying the donkey, its owners asked, ‘Why are you doing that?’ They answered, ‘The Lord needs it.’

Then they led the donkey to Jesus. They put some of their clothes on its back and helped Jesus get on. And as he rode along, the people spread clothes on the road in front of him. When Jesus was starting down the Mount of Olives, his large crowd of disciples were happy and praised God because of all the miracles they had seen. They shouted, ‘Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory to God.’

Some Pharisees in the crowd said to Jesus, ‘Teacher, make your disciples stop shouting!’ But Jesus answered, ‘If they keep quiet, the stones will start shouting.’”

OFFERTORY PRAYER - Pastor Amy Barr

ANTHEM - The Chancel Choir

“Written in Red”

“In letters of crimson God wrote His love on a hillside so long, long ago. For you and for me Jesus died and love's greatest story was told. I love you, I love you, That's what Calvary said. I love you, I love you, I love you written in red.

Down through the ages God wrote his love, with the same hands that suffered and bled, Giving all He had to give a message so easily read. I love you, I love you, That's what Calvary said. I love you, I love you, I love you written in red.

Oh precious is the flow, Precious flow, that makes me white as snow. There is no other fount I know, nothing but the blood of Jesus.

I love you, I love you, That's what Calvary said. I love you, I love you, I love you written in red. I love you.”
