

ANXIOUS FOR NOTHING GOD'S PEACE → MY PEACE

The presence of anxiety is unavoidable, but the prison of anxiety is optional.

Celebrate God's goodness
Ask God for help
Leave our concerns with God
Meditate on good things.

Acts 27:14-20

While you may be facing the perfect storm, Jesus offers you the perfect peace.

Philippians 4:4-7

You cannot think your way into peace, you can only
"obey" your way into peace.

Steps to obey for peace:

Rejoicing in the Lord, pursuing a gentle spirit, focusing on the nearness of God, praying about everything with thanksgiving.

John 14:27

3 ways to experience God's peace during a storm:

1/ Remember that storms are not how our stories end.

Storms are a part of our story, but they are not our story.
Storms are a part of our story, but they need not define us.

Acts 27:24-25

John 16:20-22

John 16:33

2/ Remember that God's help is enough for you today.

Matthew 6:34

Perfect peace comes right in the middle of perfect storms when we remember that God is with us today to help us today as we turn to him today about today's concerns.

Acts 27:17

Hebrews 4:16

3/ Remember in the middle of a storm, God's peace is found through worship.

During a perfect storm we remember that worshipping God is a choice, not a feeling.

2 Chronicles 20:12

2 Chronicles 20:21

2 Chronicles 20:22-23

When storms rage on the ocean of life, take it as God's invitation to go dive deep.

Philippians 4:4-7
