DECEMBER 2025 Newsletter

December 4th-Show and Tell– Please help your child pick out one thing for show and Tell and figure out 3 clues to share so their classmates can guess what they brought. Also send your child's shopping list for the Christmas Boutique.

December 11th– Mystery Number 13—Please send 13 small items that can fit into a gallon Ziplock with their name on it.

December 18th– Chapel, Kids Sing for Parents, Christmas party. Parents and siblings are invited to join us in the morning for our Christmas party. At 9:30 we will have Chapel and sing for parents, Then we will have a snack in our room, do a craft, recreate the Christmas Nativity and the kids will exchange their book gifts. We are having a pizza party for lunch. In the afternoon we will watch Charlie Brown Christmas and bounce in the bounce house. Please RSVP if you plan on attending all or part of the festivities.

This month our Fruit of the Spirit is Patience which is so fitting as kids are so excited to open presents. We will work on Letters B,R, and P, Numbers 12, 13, and 14, the color Brown, The Star shape and Jesus will be God's Special Child. Merry Christmas!

Children's Christmas Program
Sunday,
December 14
at our 10:30 AM
Worship Service

This is an instant and interactive Children's Christmas Program, meaning there are no rehearsals or parts given ahead of time.

Show up on Sunday, December 14 and everyone (both kids and adults) will be given a role to play (from their seats and not alone!)

It's guaranteed to be a fun time for the whole family to help tell the Christmas story together!
