Dear Mount Olive Family,

Thank you for being part of our Blessed to Be a Blessing capital campaign! Enclosed you will find several resources designed to help you learn more about the campaign, prayerfully consider your participation, and stay connected throughout this important season in the life of Mount Olive.

Here's what you'll find in your packet:

Campaign Booklet

Learn more about our campaign, its purpose, our ministry priorities, and how your generosity can help strengthen Mount Olive for generations to come.

Commitment Card & Envelope

Use the commitment card to prayerfully indicate your intended gift to the campaign. The envelope is provided for returning your completed card on Sunday, November 15, 2026.

Frequently Asked Questions

Find answers to common questions about the campaign.

Questions Slips

Have a question? Write it down and submit it anonymously using the enclosed question slips. Question slips can be dropped in the box located on the Welcome Desk. Answers to these questions will be published on our website, in the campaign newsletter and shared in church announcements.

Campaign Newsletter

Stay up to date with campaign news, stories, progress, upcoming events, and ways to be involved.

As we move forward together, may we remember that all we have is a gift from God. Together, we are blessed to be a blessing—to our congregation, our community, and to generations yet to come.

With gratitude,

Mount Olive Lutheran Church
