Choose Praise

Dear Lord, don't let us miss You this Christmas season. Help us to simplify our activities so we can focus our celebration on Your birth. Thank you for being the Prince of Peace, and I ask You for that supernatural peace to reign in our hearts. Thank You for the simple but life-changing message of Your love for us, now and always. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Merry Christmas!

As we close in on the end of 2025, can we take a moment to stop and be still. Be silent. Take some time right here to just rest in the goodness of the Lord.

Stop.

Be silent.

Be still.

Know.

And then PRAISE Him.

During the flurry of festivities that close out the Christmas season, and the goals set for the new year, purpose to take a minute to recognize the year that just blessed us all. And there were blessings! The past 365 everyday miracles are worth a moment's recognition. Before leaping to a fresh start in the new year, enjoy the JOY in the right now.

And we say together: Thank you, Lord.

We Have a Decision

Tis' the season to be merry...and stressed. This month can often make us feel more tangled up inside than a messy string of Christmas lights.

We have a decision. We can choose to get bogged down with stress or we can choose to bow down in worship.

"Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others praising God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased.'" -Luke 3:13-14

Angels serve as role models of worship. They bow down before Jesus. They shout with incredible joy as they sing songs of praise. Through worship, angels spread the news of God's glory. Angels intentionally and deliberately spend time praising God.

Keeping Christ in Christmas is more than just a cliché. It is an intentional act of worship. It requires a heart of adoration, much like the angels had.

When our hearts are at peace, our holidays can be too. This may mean joining in with the heavenly chorus to sing praises to Him!
