Joy
comes in the morning
psalm 30:5

Dear Father God, I pray for passion today for You and Your will in my life. Incline my heart to Your Word. Turn my eyes from worthless things. Let me see Your wonderful works in my life. Amen.

HELLO SPRING! Or is it called “second winter” here? No matter; JOY is coming as well as some exciting things in Fall Creek KIDS.

THANK YOU to all ministries who have “adopted a grade” at Oaklandon this year! Please continue to nurture those relationships as you support the teachers and families. Look for information on a Supplies Drive soon. PI DAY is March 14. But since that is a Saturday, we’ll be celebrating a day earlier (3/13) by encouraging the Oaklandon faculty with pies! Pies (homemade or store-bought) must be dropped off to the Fall Creek kitchen by Thursday, March 12. If you would like to help deliver pies on March 13, please let Miss April know.

NERF & NACHOS! In a Fall Creek KIDS and X-Stream Student Ministry CROSS-OVER event, we will be having a night of combined fun, food, and devotion together for 3rd graders through high schoolers. Wednesday, March 25 from 6:30pm—8:30pm.

Exciting Additions to Fall Creek KIDS. This spring and summer, we will be adding some exciting Sunday morning offerings! Look for fun details soon for KIDS 4 KIDS Gospel Adventures, where our Fall Creek KIDS will be able to get outside during the 11am service, for peer engagement, Gospel discussions, and games, that will include our X-Stream Student Ministry as well.

ILLUMINATION STATION VBS is June 14—18, 2026 from 6-8:30pm daily and registration is now open! Look for full details soon.

And we say together: Thank you, Lord.

Finding Joy

More and more these days, I find myself delighting in the prayers I hear my children speak when they think no one is listening.

A lot of times as an adult, I find my prayers are in the rush of a busy day, asking God to show up during a challenging moment or thanking Him for providing for my family.

But listening to my child’s conversations with Jesus during her nighttime prayers reminds me that God wants us to come to Him in conversation, not just in moments of need.

What a joy it is to remember that we have a great friend in Jesus. Let this be an encouragement to all of us: God is here to listen to our burdens and help us, but He also wants to hear about the good parts of our days and anything we are pondering. Whatever is on your mind, take it to the Lord in prayer.
