Scripture Reading Psalm 32:1-7

whose transgression is forgiven,
whose sin is covered.
² Happy are those
to whom the LORD imputes no iniquity
and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
³ While I kept silent,
my body wasted away
through my groaning all day long.
⁴ For day and night
your hand was heavy upon me;
my strength was dried up
as by the heat of summer.
⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
and I did not hide my iniquity;

I said,
"I will confess my transgressions
to the LORD,"
and you forgave the guilt of my sin.
⁶ Therefore let all who are faithful
offer prayer to you;
at a time of distress,
the rush of mighty waters
shall not reach them.
⁷ You are a hiding place for me;
you preserve me from trouble;
you surround me
with glad cries of deliverance.

Sermon Text Hebrews 10:1-10

Since the law has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered year after year, make perfect those who approach. ² Otherwise, would they not have ceased being offered, since the worshipers, cleansed once for all, would no longer have any consciousness of sin? ³ But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sin year after year.

⁴ For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ Consequently, when Christ came into the world, he said,

"Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me;

⁶ in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure.

⁷ Then I said, 'See, I have come to do your will, O God'
(in the scroll of the book it is written of me)."

⁸ When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), ⁹ then he added, "See, I have come to do your will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. ¹⁰ And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
