Scripture References:

(New American Standard Bible (NASB) is used unless otherwise indicated.)

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land; so Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine was severe in the land.

James 1:2-4 Consider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter various trials, <sup>3</sup>knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance. <sup>4</sup>And let endurance have its perfect result, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

Genesis 12:11-20 It came about when he came near to Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, “See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman; <sup>12</sup>and when the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife’; and they will kill me, but they will let you live. <sup>13</sup>Please say that you are my sister so that it may go well with me because of you, and that I may live on account of you.” <sup>14</sup>It came about when Abram came into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh’s house. <sup>16</sup>Therefore he treated Abram well for her sake; and gave him sheep and oxen and donkeys and male and female servants and female donkeys and camels. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord struck Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife. <sup>18</sup>Then Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I took her for my wife? Now then, here is your wife, take her and go.” <sup>20</sup>Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him; and they escorted him away, with his wife and all that belonged to him.

Genesis 20:5-12 “Did he not himself say to me, ‘She is my sister’? And she herself said, ‘He is my brother.’ In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands I have done this.” <sup>6</sup>Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also kept you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her. <sup>7</sup>Now therefore, restore the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.” <sup>8</sup>So Abimelech arose early in the morning and called all his servants and told all these things in their hearing; and the men were greatly frightened. <sup>9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, “What have you done to us? And how have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done to me things that ought not to be done.” <sup>10</sup>And Abimelech said to Abraham, “What have you encountered, that you have done this thing?” <sup>11</sup>Abraham said, “Because I thought, surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife. <sup>12</sup>Besides, she actually is my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.”

Proverbs 3:5

Trust in the Lord with all your heart
And do not lean on your own understanding.

Genesis 13:1-4 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, he and his wife and all that belonged to him, and Lot with him. <sup>2</sup>Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver and in gold. <sup>3</sup>He went on his journeys from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>4</sup>to the place of the altar which he had made there formerly; and there Abram called on the name of the Lord.

Psalm 23:3 He restoreth my soul.
