Scripture References:

(New American Standard Bible (NASB) is used unless otherwise indicated)

Exodus 20:15

You shall not steal.

I Timothy 6:17-18

Instruct those who are rich in this present world not to be conceited or to fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy. ¹⁸Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share,

Romans 13:8a

Owe nothing to anyone except to love one another.

Psalms 37:21

The wicked borrows and does not pay back, but the righteous is gracious and gives.

Proverbs 18:9

He also who is slack in his work is brother to him who destroys.

Malachi 3:8-10

“Will a man rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, ‘How have we robbed You?’ In tithes and offerings. ⁹You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing Me, the whole nation of you! ¹⁰Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be food in My house, and test Me now in this,” says the Lord of hosts, “if I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you a blessing until it overflows.”

Romans 13:7

Render to all what is due them: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom.

Ephesians 4:28

He who steals must steal no longer; but rather he must labor, performing with his own hands what is good, so that he will have something to share with one who has need.

II Thessalonians 3:10-12 (ESV)

For even when we were with you, we would give you this command: If anyone is not willing to work, let him not eat. ¹¹For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies. ¹²Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living.

II Corinthians 8:9

For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, so that you through His poverty might become rich.
