

Do you have a child, grandchild, niece or nephew or neighbor aged 0-3?

Are you looking for new books and activities to help children learn and grow?

Then come sing, talk and read with the Where Literacy Begins Workshop Series

Where Literacy Begins includes a review of developmental milestones and focuses on how to best nurture young children's development. Topics include exploring music and art with babies and helping infants and toddlers to understand and use sound and signals as they begin speech.

All sessions are on Sundays at Calvary UMC 9:30-10:30 a.m. in Classroom 3.

Each session features at least 6-12 new children's books and participants get a new book to keep at each session.

At the end of the series, participants receive "prizes"

for complete attendance.

To register, contact Beth Posey at bposey@comcast.net Childcare is provided.

This workshop series is funded by a grant through WETAkids.
