Today is Father's Day. Lord, help us all to thank and forgive our fathers. We celebrate with those who enjoy great friendship with their dads! We grieve with those who have lost their dads to death or to broken relationships. We rejoice with those experiencing rich blessing in fatherhood. We mourn with all guys who want to be fathers and those whose daughters or sons have died; we mourn with dads whose children are out of touch. God we thank you for all men and the many fathering roles they assume, and the risks they take; may your grace and love be apparent to all they serve. Lord, raise up caring, attentive dads who model faith after you.

Thank you to all the members who placed suggestions in our suggestion box in back of the sanctuary. The Council appreciates and welcomes your suggestions and encourages members to continue submitting suggestions for our review and consideration.
