“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of our mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.”
(Romans 12:2, ESV)

For 5 years, I was honored to serve the wider church as a part of the national Renewal Team of the North American Lutheran Church (NALC). During that time, our team worked hard to address various ministry needs of our existing congregations across the NALC, in particular, in the area of congregational renewal, and renewal in the life of the individual Christian.

When we talk about “renewal,” we have to ask the question: what does “renewal” mean, and is it something we need in the life of our local congregation, and in our own individual spiritual lives today? The Greek New Testament word that is translated as “renewal” in our verse from Romans 12, that I quoted at the beginning of this article comes from a root word that means “renovation” or “a complete change of heart or mind.”

Theologically speaking, the conversation of “renewal” gets to the heart of the daily life of the Christian! It’s something we need every day. As I reflect on what I see in the world today, I don’t recall a time in my life in which I witness as much personal, political, and social unrest as what I see happening in recent years. It’s also not a coincidence that as this is happening, fewer and fewer people are identifying themselves as Christians, and there is an ever growing segment of our population that claims “no religious affiliation” (often referred to as “the Nones”), and in light of this, we witness the church’s influence in our local communities and in society continue to decline.

If there has ever been a time in which the Church, and individual Christians need renewal, it’s today! We need a spiritual “renovation” or “change of heart or mind” to draw us closer to Christ and His Word and will for us.

As you look at the verse from Romans 12, we’re encouraged to find renewal in our mind through the Word of Christ. What does that look like? It begins as we stay in God’s Word in the Scriptures first by regular worship on Sunday morning and/or Wednesday evening, as well as taking the time to read and study it outside of worship. That Word calls us to renew ourselves as we lay our sins and failings at the foot of the Cross, and receive anew each day God’s gift of forgiveness through the blood of our crucified and risen Savior, Jesus. This is how we find spiritual renewal as we are set free from the world’s demands that can never be satisfied, and we find true peace with Christ. We find the promise of forgiveness of every last one of our sins, and the promise of eternal life in paradise with Christ because of His work for us!

Thus, having been renewed by the Word of the Gospel, our focus in our daily lives changes. Instead of being focused inward on ourselves, we’re focused outside of ourselves, asking how can we share the love and forgiveness of God through Jesus Christ with those in our families, in our church, and in our community?

As we soon resume our full fall schedule of programming here at St. Paul, I ask you to join with me in praying that God will bless our ministry of Word and Sacrament here, that the Holy Spirit through His Word opens our hearts and minds to what God is calling us to do in the year to come, and that we be open to the renewing work of the Holy Spirit through God’s Word in our hearts and minds each day, and in our life together as His people.

Your Friend in Christ,

Pastor Christopher Martin

JAM (Jesus And Me)

As we get ready for the upcoming JAM year, we have some important information for you. This year JAM will run on Wednesdays from 5:00 p.m.-6:15 p.m. for students in 1st through 6th grades. Please watch for an email with a registration form, or request one from the church office. Our JAM kickoff will be September 10 and the forms need to be turned in before that date. We are expecting our enrollment numbers to be great this year and we are so excited about that!

We will continue with rotations of Music, Bible Study, and Craft/Activity, followed by supper. It will be busy but that is what makes it fun! We are also going to continue with a monthly pizza night. There will be a sign-up with sponsorship "slices" available for $100, which goes a long way towards paying for the pizza we need, and if you sponsor a pizza night, you are invited to come and eat with us. There will also be a dessert sign-up in the narthex and we are grateful for those who volunteer to provide simple, kid-friendly desserts each week.

If you are interested in volunteering to help out Glenda in the kitchen, Nancy with the Bible study, or Emma with the Craft/Activity, or you would like to be a table parent, please let Jill Cook know soon. We would love to have you join us and help JAM run smoothly each week! If you aren't able to commit to every week but would like to be on a list of substitutes, those are needed as well so please reach out and let us know you're interested.

The church is encouraging all parents of JAM members, and requiring all volunteers, to fill out the background check form that is available in the sanctuary, which you can seal in the envelope and return it to the church office or place under the office door. In the interest of the safety of our children, our insurance is requiring this of anyone who will come into contact with our children. There will be a required short training class for all volunteers who are not already current mandatory reporters of child abuse and neglect. Child Protection Training be on October 1 at 7:00 p.m. or October 5 at 10:15 a.m.

As always, we appreciate your prayers and support for our JAM kids, and we appreciate all the volunteers who join us weekly at JAM. It takes all of us, one way or another, to make these programs and activities come together for our kids. God bless!

- Jill Cook, JAM Director
