GLOBAL FOCUS

An Update from
Faustin and Salome Ntamushobora
Equipping Church Leaders
In East Africa (Part 2)

This sabbatical gave me an opportunity to rest, relax, recharge, and seek the Lord for a fresh perspective on the future of TLAfrica. Toward the end of my time away, I traveled to Rwanda, where I met with members of our Rwanda Board, prospective board members, members of the International Board and Governing Council, government officials, and our leadership team. These conversations allowed me to begin reconnecting with the important work that continued during my absence and to look ahead to the opportunities before us.

I return deeply thankful for the people God has brought together through TLAfrica and with a renewed sense of purpose for the season ahead. In the coming weeks, I look forward to reconnecting with our leadership, hearing their updates, and sharing what the Lord has placed on my heart during this time of prayer and reflection.

Thank you once again for your prayers, partnership, and faithful contribution to Christ’s Kingdom through TLAfrica, Inc. May the Lord continue to guide us and use our shared ministry for His glory.

OUR MISSION:
To find rest for our souls in surrender
to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:
To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
