Update From The Thailand Team

A team made up of Granadans and others is in Thailand to teach an English camp. Here’s an update from the beginning of their trip!

Today was our first day of camp. There were about 80 kids total, coming from local schools or being driven in from nearby villages by the church, all between the ages of 8-20. Overall, we all had a great day with the students and were able to teach them how to introduce themselves, including their name and grade, and share if they have siblings.

Tomorrow, camp will include the first Bible message, given by Pastors Aung and Peter. Please pray for them as they prepare to speak, and also for God to open hearts and little ears to the truth of who He is and His love for them. We’d also love continued prayers for us as we teach in a new climate and culture, where we need a lot of flexibility.

OUR MISSION:

To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:

To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
