Lord of our Storms

Mark 4:35-41 (NASB)

³⁵ On that day, when evening came, He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side.” ³⁶ Leaving the crowd, they took Him along with them in the boat, just as He was; and other boats were with Him. ³⁷ And there arose a fierce gale of wind, and the waves were breaking over the boat so much that the boat was already filling up. ³⁸ Jesus Himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke Him and said to Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are perishing?” ³⁹ And He got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Hush, be still.” And the wind died down and it became perfectly calm. ⁴⁰ And He said to them, “Why are you afraid? How is it that you have no faith?” ⁴¹ They became very much afraid and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

Overarching Purpose

- Deity
- Lord of creation, Lord of storms (see Jn 1:1-3, Col 1:16-17)
- For the Master of creation, mastery of storms is a small matter.

Living through storms

- Sovereignty
- Goodness
- Greatness
- Faith or Fear
- Awe

Expect and embrace storms

We thrive in and through storms, not by escaping them.

Take it Home

GLOBAL FOCUS

Thank you so much for how you’ve pledged to Faith Promise! I continue to be thankful for your faithfulness year after year. The missions committee completed our budget meetings yesterday, so I’ll give more info in the weeks to come about what our missions budget looks like for next year.

However, another way to be involved in what God’s doing around the world is through Operation Christmas Child. Every year, Samaritan’s Purse takes shoeboxes we and others pack to children around the world who don’t know Jesus. Those kids then get to hear who Jesus is and are given a shoebox as a gift and as a symbol of the free gift of Jesus’ salvation. It’s an incredible opportunity that we get to be part of every year around this time!

For more info about how to get involved, you can contact Ben Saucy at bemilie@gmail.com or Kaitlynn Eppard at kaitlynn@ghfc.org.

OUR MISSION:

To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:

To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
