Godly Sorrow? True Repentance?
Hosea 9

I. The Example of Paul and the Church at Corinth:

Evidences of godly sorrow/repentance in the Corinthians (v. 11):

1. "Earnestness": Takes right action ASAP, not sweeping it under the rug.

2. "Concern to clear yourselves": Seeks peace with the other person on the warm common ground of reason, not on a battlefield where I must win at all cost.

3. "Indignation": Righteous anger for the hurt done to others, not anger at how being caught hurts me.

4. "Alarm": Lit. "Fear." Proper fear of God's power and right to bring consequences for our evil actions, not fear of how others perceive me.

5. "Longing to see me": Longs for a restoration of loving friendship, not just cold indifference.

6. "Zeal": An intense "bubbling over" feeling of love for others, not a lingering resentment.

7. "Readiness to punish wrong": Accepts the just consequences of my actions, not making any excuses.

II. The Example of King David

2 Samuel 12:13, 15-18 NLT
13 Then David confessed to Nathan, "I have sinned against the Lord."

15 After Nathan returned to his home, the Lord sent a deadly illness to the child of David and Uriah's wife. 16 David begged God to spare the child. He went without food and lay all night on the bare ground. 17 The elders of his household pleaded with him to get up and eat with them, but he refused. 18 Then on the seventh day the child died…

Psalm 51:3-4a, 10 NLT
3 For I recognize my rebellion;
it haunts me day and night.
4 Against you, and you alone, have I sinned;
I have done what is evil in your sight.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.

Evidences of godly sorrow/repentance in David:

1. Empathetic acknowledgement that his sin hurt God and others.

2. Sacrificed much to seek God for the good of those hurt by his sin.

3. Desired a change in the gaze of his heart to be purely fixed on God.

Reflection Questions:
- What are some key differences between godly sorrow and worldly sorrow?
- Are any of these 10 evidences of true repentance a struggle for me?
- Is there anything in my life that I am not truly repentant about?

GLOBAL FOCUS

Faith Promise Update

Thank you for your continued pledges to give to Faith Promise next year! Currently, we've pledged $123,551! Given that our Faith Promise budget is usually around $188,000, we're about two-thirds of the way there!

So, why is supporting global missions so important? The Bible is full of God's heart for the nations to know Him. We see it in Genesis 12:3 where God promises Abraham that "all peoples will be blessed through you." We see it in Psalm 67:3 where the psalmist prays, "May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you." We see it in Jesus' command in Matthew 28:19, "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations." And we see it in Revelation 7:9 where John sees "a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb." These are but a few of the many passages that show us this.

God has a heart for the nations and invites us to be part of what He's doing among them, and Faith Promise is one way we get to do that together through supporting missionaries in various nations. If you haven't yet asked the Lord whether He wants you to join us in this, would you?

OUR MISSION:
To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:
To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
