GLOBAL FOCUS

Update from Thomas Moore
in South Sudan

I'm writing to you from the Wycliffe compound in Juba, South Sudan and am a little over halfway through my trip. For the past 6 days, I've had the opportunity to meet the missionaries and the South Sudanese who work with Wycliffe here, and I have absolutely loved it! I've felt so welcomed by various people making sure I have what I need and looking out for me, and several people have had me over for dinner on various nights to get to know me better. Beyond that, I've loved being with people who have a love for linguistics and Bible translation.

Today (Tuesday), I will leave Wycliffe's compound and have a different focus for the rest of my trip. Pastor Nicodeme, a missionary from Rwanda, has been in South Sudan for the past two and a half months to figure out the logistics of his family and him living here starting sometime next year.

Finally, I'm so grateful for all of you! Thank you for how you've prayed and are praying for me and for how you've given so that I can begin a disciple-making apprenticeship with N. County Project in January.

OUR MISSION:

To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:

To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
