On the Third Name

From Didymus, to Doubting Thomas, to... ?

Scriptures for Reference:

John 20:24-29

²⁴ Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin (Didymus), was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵ So the other disciples told him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe.”

²⁶ Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” ²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe.”

²⁸ Thomas answered him, “My Lord and my God!” ²⁹ Jesus said to him, “Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.”

John 14:4-6

⁴ And you know the way to where I am going.” ⁵ Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” ⁶ Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

John 20:30-31

³⁰ Now Jesus performed many other miraculous signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not recorded in this book. ³¹ But these are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

How to find eternal life with Jesus today:

GLOBAL FOCUS

He is Risen! Happy Easter

Jesus’ relentless love for the world takes center stage during Holy Week. In the week between Palm Sunday and Easter, Jesus guaranteed the fulfillment of his famous words, “For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.” We celebrate today His resurrection, the final victory over death, which enables us to enter into His glorious life.

We are grateful for your support and invite you to prayerfully ask the Lord how you might continue to walk with him into making sure that every woman, man, boy and girl experiences God’s relentless love. God’s kingdom is growing around the world and we are privileged to have a small part in the spread of His gospel. May the Lord bless you richly this Easter Sunday.
