All Leaves, No Fruit

Mark 11:12-33 ESV

¹² On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

¹³ And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴ And he said to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again.” And his disciples heard it.

¹⁵ And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. ¹⁶ And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple. ¹⁷ And he was teaching them and saying to them, “Is it not written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations’? But you have made it a den of robbers.” ¹⁸ And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching. ¹⁹ And when evening came they went out of the city.

²⁰ As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. ²¹ And Peter remembered and said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.”

²² And Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. ²³ Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be taken up and thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. ²⁴ Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours. ²⁵ And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.”

²⁷ And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him, ²⁸ and they said to him, “By what authority are you doing these things, or who gave you this authority to do them?” ²⁹ Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. ³⁰ Was the baptism of John from heaven or from man? Answer me.” ³¹ And they discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ ³² But shall we say, ‘From man’?”—they were afraid of the people, for they all held that John really was a prophet. ³³ So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

God wants His people to be fruit bearers for His Kingdom.
But what does that look like?

- 1 Fruit bearers break down barriers to include all people into God’s family.
- 2 Fruit bearers pray with power – any time, any place.
- 3 Fruit bearers forgive others, as God has forgiven us.

GLOBAL FOCUS

Update from Bruce and Linda Cannon Working in Missionary Care with SEND (Part 1)

This Thursday (4/9) Bruce flies to Tokyo and will be in Japan April 10-20 to meet with individual missionaries and couples to conduct “care review conversations” debriefing the last year. He will be traveling primarily by train and subway. He will also be spending time with key leaders and following up with others he has been engaging with over the last year. He will be in the Kanto (greater Tokyo) region most of the time but will also travel north to Sendai and the Tohoku region April 15-16.

- Please pray for the missionaries going through the care review process that it would be a source of encouragement, support, and clarity for their ongoing growth.
- Pray for the conversations Bruce will have with others on our Japan field including many leaders, apart from the care review process.
- Pray for good health, clear navigation of the train system, and overall safety in travel.

OUR MISSION:

To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:

To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
