Two Different Fish

Mark 14:53-72

Why did Peter tell Mark about this incredibly shameful story?
What might Peter want us to know about this?

“Mark, having become the interpreter of Peter, wrote down accurately whatever he remembered of the things said or done by the Lord, though not in order. For he had neither heard the Lord nor followed him, but later, as I said, followed Peter [See 1 Peter 5:13], who used to give his teachings according to the needs of the occasion, but not as making an orderly arrangement of the Lord's sayings. So Mark committed no error in writing down some things as he remembered them. For he made it his one concern not to omit anything he had heard or to falsify anything in them.”

— Papias, Bishop of Hierapolis, circa 100-130 A.D.

Mark 14:53-72 NIV

<sup>53</sup> They took Jesus to the high priest, and all the chief priests, the elders and the teachers of the law came together. <sup>54</sup> Peter followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. There he sat with the guards and warmed himself at the fire.

<sup>55</sup> The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death, but they did not find any. <sup>56</sup> Many testified falsely against him, but their statements did not agree.

<sup>57</sup> Then some stood up and gave this false testimony against him: <sup>58</sup> “We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple made with human hands and in three days will build another, not made with hands.’” <sup>59</sup> Yet even then their testimony did not agree.

<sup>60</sup> Then the high priest stood up before them and asked Jesus, “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?” <sup>61</sup> But Jesus remained silent and gave no answer.

Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?”

<sup>62</sup> “I am,” said Jesus. “And you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>63</sup> The high priest tore his clothes. “Why do we need any more witnesses?” he asked. <sup>64</sup> “You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?”

They all condemned him as worthy of death. <sup>65</sup> Then some began to spit at him; they blindfolded him, struck him with their fists, and said, “Prophecy!” And the guards took him and beat him.

<sup>66</sup> While Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came by. <sup>67</sup> When she saw Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him.

“You also were with that Nazarene, Jesus,” she said.

<sup>68</sup> But he denied it. “I don’t know or understand what you’re talking about,” he said, and went out into the entryway.

<sup>69</sup> When the servant girl saw him there, she said again to those standing around, “This fellow is one of them.” <sup>70</sup> Again he denied it.

After a little while, those standing near said to Peter, “Surely you are one of them, for you are a Galilean.”

<sup>71</sup> He began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know this man you’re talking about.”

<sup>72</sup> Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows twice you will disown me three times.” And he broke down and wept.

Jane Hsu Working to Equip Christians in Taiwan (Part 2)

Here are a few prayer requests from Jane:

- Please pray as I briefly introduce our publishing ministry at four pastors' fellowship gatherings this month (June 9, 18, 24, and 25). May God grant favor, wisdom, and meaningful connections.
- Our Depression Support Group Facilitator Training and Trauma Survivor Support Group Facilitator Training are scheduled for July. Each program still needs one or two additional participants to meet the minimum enrollment requirement. Please pray that both trainings can launch successfully.
- Pray that God will keep me sensitive to the needs of this generation and enable me to write articles that speak to people's hearts and reach those who do not yet know Christ.
- Pray that God will open more doors for us to serve schools, businesses, churches, and communities through training, speaking engagements, and educational resources.
- Pray that the books and resources we publish will continue to bring healing to relationships and help people experience God's love more deeply.

OUR MISSION:

To find rest for our souls in surrender to the gentle and humble heart of Jesus

OUR VISION:

To be a united, growing family that embodies the presence of Jesus to everyone we encounter
