

A pair of hands is shown from a top-down perspective, cupped together and holding a small amount of clear water. The water is dripping down into a larger body of water below, creating ripples. The background is a soft-focus view of a body of water with a sandy beach in the distance under a clear sky. The overall color palette is warm and natural, with greens, blues, and skin tones.

Fresno Christian Reformed

Thank you for joining us for worship today!

We are blessed and have many reasons to praise and thank our great God. We are delighted that you are here and hope you will join us every Sunday morning as we study God's Holy Word together.

If you are visiting for the first time, we would like to get to know you. Please fill out the friendship folder in the pew in front of you and join us for refreshments and fellowship after worship.

And this water symbolizes baptism that now saves you also—not the removal of dirt from the body but the pledge of a clear conscience toward God. It saves you by the resurrection of Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 3:21 NIV

Today, we are blessed to witness the baptism of Tessa Kate te Velde by Pastor Nick Monsma. Our message today will be from Colossians 1:3-14. Next week Pastor Nick will bring us a sermon from 1 Corinthians 1:4-9.
