Spiritual Blues Descend After
Spiritual Mountaintops - Jonah 2 & 3

1. Recognize the enemy is at work to discourage you. The Devil does not want you to be used by God.
2. During difficulty, lean into God's call on your life. You're a child of God, a husband, a father, a grandfather. People are relying on your prayer life.
3. Amidst the blues, remember how God has led you in the past. When Jonah's reality was distorted, God reminded him of the past. Jonah 4:10-11 Jonah cared about the plant, but not the people.

MORNING WORSHIP

The Spiritual Importance of a Close Friend

Philippians 2:19-30

An old adage: "Show me your five closest friends and I'll show you who you'll become."

The reason social media is popular is because of friends. The danger of digital connections is that they offer the illusion of companionship without the demands of friendship.

Paul is close friends with Timothy. They have a father-son friendship - Timothy would be younger than Paul.

The other close friend Paul has is Epaphroditus - he's also a fellow co-worker in the ministry.

- Close relationships are vital to personal health. Close friendships are developed when two people walk through hard times together.
- When two people serve the Lord together, next to each other, they will naturally grow in their friendship. This applies to your spouse and Christian classmates and coworkers.

Two of the biggest decisions we'll make are who we marry and who our friends are.

"Do not be unequally yoked." 2 Corinthians 6:14 NKJV

Believers should not marry unbelievers, and believers should not have close friends who are unbelievers.

"The righteous should choose his friends carefully, For the way of the wicked leads them astray." Proverbs 12:26 NKJV

Takeaway - We should ask the Lord to give us Christlike friends such as Timothy and Epaphroditus.
