MORNING WORSHIP

Peter's Hypocrisy – Galatians 2:11-21

Paul opposed Peter publicly because of his hypocrisy. Paul recognized the dangerous actions of Peter separating himself from Gentiles – returning to former Jewish dietary laws.

Peter returning to his old life created confusion – Paul was preaching, “salvation by faith alone in Jesus Christ” – yet Peter is separating himself from Gentiles, he negatively influenced Barnabas.

We do not please God with our performance for Him. The danger of hypocrisy is that it's performance-based.

If God's pleasure in us isn't based on performance, then how do we please Him?

Answer is v. 16 – God desires us to have faith in His Son, this is a total dependence upon Jesus.

The Two Extremes:

Legalism – Right behavior with wrong belief.

Hypocrisy – Right belief with wrong behavior.

God's Plan for Us:

Faith in Christ – Right belief with right behavior.

v. 16 says we're "justified by faith." Justification is the gracious act of God that declares a sinner righteous through faith in Jesus Christ.

How this changes us:

1. We die to Sin.
2. We live for God.
