Our custom Broadway app where you will be able to watch streaming sermons, take notes, communicate with other members and groups and much more, will be operational by August 1. Look for it on the App Store and Google Play. Breeze will no longer be available after August 1.

MORNING WORSHIP

Upsidedown – Jesus & the Adulteress

John 8:2-11

Note the footnote in your Bible regarding this event. Our earliest Bible manuscripts do not have John 7:53-8:11; Mark 16:9-20

Why is this?

- 1). This account is absent from the oldest copies of John. Unknown until the fourth century.
- 2). Where it does occur in later manuscripts, it is found in various places in John, including after Luke 21:38.
- 3). This section includes words that are not used elsewhere in John.
- 4). It appears to break the narrative flow from John 7:52 to John 8:12.

One of the hesitations of this passage is the liberal attitude of Jesus towards sexual sin.

Conclusion – this event might not have been included in John’s original manuscript, yet there is nothing in this passage that would prevent us from believing it to be a truthful story concerning Jesus.

The scribes and the Pharisees knew of Jesus' compassion, they believed He would excuse her sin, which would violate the law.

The law being challenged is Deuteronomy 22:22, the death penalty is required of both the man and the woman who commit adultery.

Jesus doesn't ignore or excuse her sin, He acknowledges it – but He came to save sinners.

How this is Upsidedown:

- Jesus is the only one who could have thrown the first stone.
- Jesus does not condemn her.
- Jesus made every man ready to stone her, admit his sin. He's saying, "You're just like her."
