You are welcome to visit a group to see if it is a fit for you. Drop-ins are welcome at our on-campus groups.

The best way to visit an off-campus group is to contact the church in advance to confirm time and place.

Feel free to contact Pastor James if you have any questions at james.zik@gmail.com.

What is a Bible Fellowship Group?

A Bible Fellowship Group is a community of people connected for discipleship, prayer, and spiritually encouraging relationships.

When and where do Bible Fellowship Groups meet?

Bible Fellowship Groups meet on and off Beach Road's campus at various times and days throughout the week. They are organized in a variety of ways from life stage, geographic location, and content of study.

What is the Bible Fellowship Group philosophy?

We believe BFG's function best when the group is small enough for everyone to get involved in the conversation. A small group can keep up with what is going on in each other's lives and encourage one another.

At Beach Road, we believe that life change happens in

BIBLE FELLOWSHIP GROUPS

God designed His people to grow closer to Him in the context of relationships. So, we encourage everyone to make attending a Bible Fellowship Group a priority in their week.
