WEEK 21

Psalm 20:1-9

<sup>0</sup> To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David. <sup>1</sup> May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble; may the name of the God of Jacob defend you; <sup>2</sup> May He send you help from the sanctuary, and strengthen you out of Zion; <sup>3</sup> May He remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt sacrifice. Selah <sup>4</sup> May He grant you according to your heart's desire, and fulfill all your purpose. <sup>5</sup> We will rejoice in your salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners! May the LORD fulfill all your petitions.

<sup>6</sup> Now I know that the LORD saves His anointed; He will answer him from His holy heaven with the saving strength of His right hand. <sup>7</sup> Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. <sup>8</sup> They have bowed down and fallen; but we have risen and stand upright.

<sup>9</sup> [The LORD will save the king; He will answer the day we call.]

III. A Leader's Response:

- David sings, "

" (vv6-8)!

IV. The Promise:

- David sings, "

" (v9).

V. Objections:

1. "Some leaders don't deserve my prayers!" Maybe they don't, but prayer isn't about their worthiness. It's about aligning our heart with God. Scripture calls believers to pray even for imperfect rulers. Prayer is not endorsement; it's obedience. It's choosing love over resentment and trust over cynicism.
2. "Talking about leaders in the church just leads to politics and division!" Yes, differences in opinions can divide us. But do you know what prayer does? Prayer unites. Psalm 20 isn't a political rally. It's a worship gathering! When we pray for leaders, we step above party lines and kneel under God's authority. Prayer is the safest, strongest way to engage without tearing each other apart.
