

Beth Palmer has been the outreach coordinator at KFUMC since 2013. Beth had served as the director of youth ministry since the summer of 200 and prior to that, she taught and coached in public school for 16 years.

Beth went to high school in Liberty Hill, Texas, where she participated in all sports, was the feature twirler, and lived in the country, taking care of horses, cows, and chickens. "My parents modeled for me my whole life how to share all that you have with your neighbors and always offer radical hospitality."

Beth graduated from the University of Texas in Austin with a degree in education. In college, she participated in track and field, campus ministry, taught baton twirling and had a blast in intramural sports.

Beth has been married to her awesome husband, Grant, for 34 years and they have three amazing grown-up children, Ty, Colt, and Jill. "My favorite thing in the entire world is to hanging out with my husband and kids!"

Beth has a heart for reaching out and sharing Christ. Her favorite activities are anything that gives her a chance to serve. "We all are in ministry. Our mission fields are our homes, our community, our country, and our world." Beth's favorite scripture is Isaiah 40:31 "...but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." Beth enjoys the pursuit of "living each day abundantly!"
